

Imagine Your Story:

Aladdin

In the original story of Aladdin, he was the son of a poor tailor living in Eastern China. One day, a wicked magician, disguised as Aladdin's uncle, convinced Aladdin to go into a cave to retrieve a lamp. To aid Aladdin in his quest, the magician also provided Aladdin with a magic ring. Aladdin retrieved the lamp as instructed, however he refused to give up the lamp before leaving the cave, so the magician angrily locked him in the cave. While waiting trapped in the cave, Aladdin discovered his ring housed a genie, who was able to transport him back home.

Once home, Aladdin's mother discovered a second genie by rubbing the lamp. Aladdin wished for the second genie to make him rich, and as a result was able to marry the Sultan's daughter, Princess Bulbul. However, after their marriage, the wicked magician appeared again and stole off with the lamp and the princess. Aladdin then used the genie of the ring to find the princess and also put a powerful sleeping potion in the magician's drink. Aladdin and the Princess returned home and lived happily ever after enjoying their good fortunes.
