

Take and Make: Blackout Poetry

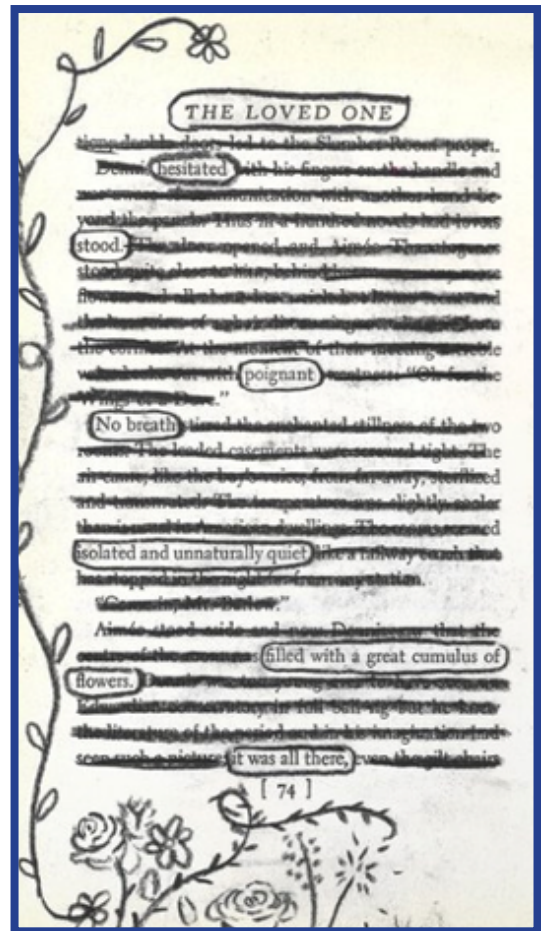

Transform old book pages into a work of literary art by creating blackout poetry.

Take and Make Kit Includes:

- Book pages

Additional Materials Needed:

- Pencil
- Black marker

Instructions:

1. Select a recycled book page to create your poetry.
2. Read through the page to get an idea of what your poem will be about.
3. Using a pencil circle selected words that will be used to build the poem.
4. Once all words have been selected and circled, use a black marker to blackout all remaining words on the page that have not been circled.
5. Gently trace your circled words in marker to make them stand out from the blacked-out words.
